[EN] 12. Changing a Password

Every user of the Editor and Administrator Application can change his or her password to the application, by selecting the "Change password…." option from the "Application" menu. There will appear a window in which the user should enter the existing password and the new password and confirm the new password.