

[EN] 01. Introduction to the Editor and Administrator Application

Information

The Editor and Application Application is a window program which consists of two applications: the Editor Application and the Administrator Application. They make it possible to manage the content of a digital library (the Editor Application; for example, adding new items) and to manage a digital library (the Administrator Application; for example, managing the subject division of a digital library).